CORAM: G.S. PATEL, J
DATED: 18th March 2015

PC:-

1. In this matter, there are apparently a very large number of people who wish to attend the hearings. I am informed by the High Court Security detail that this creates, and has today created, a security and crowd management problem. For this reason, both sides are requested to ensure that not more than 25 people from each side attend the hearings in the Court, other than the advocates and attorneys in the matter. There is no restriction on the press or other advocates.

2. Further, a list of names of those persons who intend to attend the hearings must be supplied by each side to the High Court security staff/Associate of Court Room No. 37, at least 48 hours in advance, and those attending must carry an appropriate photo identification with them. The security staff of the High Court will make arrangements to issue the necessary passes to these visitors.
